DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the rules in claim 1, the arrangements of the points are square and hexagonal as recited in claims 2 and 4 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
- (d) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC (See 37 CFR 1.52(e)(5) and MPEP 608.05. Computer program listings (37 CFR 1.96(c)), "Sequence Listings" (37 CFR 1.821(c)), and tables having more than 50 pages of text are permitted to be submitted on compact discs.) or REFERENCE TO A "MICROFICHE APPENDIX" (See MPEP § 608.05(a). "Microfiche Appendices" were accepted by the Office until March 1, 2001.)
- (e) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.

Art Unit: 3714

(1) Field of the Invention.

(2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.

(f) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.

(g) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).

(h) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.

(i) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).

(j) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).

(k) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

2. This application does not contain an abstract of the disclosure as required by 37

CFR 1.72(b). An abstract on a separate sheet is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 2-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 2 recites the limitation "the arrangement" in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 2 recites the limitation "the points" in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 3 recites the limitation "the set" in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Double Patenting

5. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

6. Claims 1-7 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-4 of U.S. Patent No. 6,568,683. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because claims 1-4 of the U.S. Patent No. 6,568,683 "anticipates" application serial number 10/031,776 of claims 1-7. Accordingly, the application of claim 1 are/is not patentably distinct from U.S. Patent No. 6,568,683 of claims 1-4. Here, U.S. Patent No. 6,568,683 of claims 1-4 requires elements a grid of grid points on a flat surface, a game manager made of a CPU and memory which manages two or more games with a set of basic rules while the application of claims 1-4 only requires elements a grid of grid points on a flat surface, a game manager made of a CPU and memory which manages one or more games with a set of rules. Thus it is apparent that the more specific U.S. Patent No. 6,568,683 of claims 1-4 encompasses the application of claims 1-7.

7. Following the rationale in In re Goodman cited in the preceding paragraph, where applicant has once been granted a patent containing a claim for the specific or narrower invention, invention, applicant may not then obtain a second patent with a claim for the generic or broader invention without first submitting an appropriate terminal disclaimer.

Art Unit: 3714

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

8. Claims 1-3 and 5-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Golad '441.

9. Golad discloses an apparatus for a game having a grid of grid points on a flat surface having each grid point being a visible element which is capable of detecting when it is pressed, two different colors allocated to represent players, a CPU, memory, and a computer program executed by the CPU as recited in claim 1; the arrangement of the points is square as recited in claim 3; the set of virtual lines is the 8 lines emanating from the point and going through the closest 8 points as recited in claim 3; the fixed number which is used in determining the legality of a move is 0 as recited in claim 5; the pressing a point is don by special implement that causes a short circuit which the board uses to identify the point is pressed as recited in claim 6; the players use, hold, or wear a special implement which identifies which player is playing by communicating with the board as recited in claim 7.

In regard to the claimed rules in claim 1, a line 12-23, this statement is considered a game rule. In game apparatus claims, only the claimed elements having physical structure (e.g. board, top side, bottom side) are given patentable weight. Game rules, (e.g. three cards face up, two card face down), however, have no physical structure per se. Thus, game rules have no limiting affect in game apparatus claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

10. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

11. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Golad '441.

12. Golad discloses the claimed invention as discussed above except for the arrangement of points is hexagonal. The particular arrangement of points used is a matter of design choice, wherein no stated problem is solved, or unexpected result obtained, by using the specific arrangement of points claimed versus the arrangement of points taught by the prior art. By having different arrangement of grid points, one of ordinary skill in the art would be able to provide an alternative to the traditional game features. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the applicant's invention was made to modify Golad to include different arrangement of grid points to provide an alternative to the traditional game features.

Conclusion

13. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Sasaki '635, Sinclair '973, Scarr UK '817, Howard UK '265, Tepoorten '421, Harpaz GB '393, '107, '108, '109, '110, and '111, Sinclair '973, and O'Brien '117 all discloses different types of electronic game board devices.
